

To Whom it May Concern:

My name is Chandler Guadagnin. I graduated from Brigham Young University-Idaho, in April, with a bachelors degree in communication emphasizing in News/Journalism. The skills I gained while attending college and receiving my degree, I learned several valuable skills that will serve me well when working for your organization. Perhaps, two of the most paramount and relevant skills I acquired include writing and communicating efficiently as well as how to work with a team.

I first learned the power of communication when I was 12 years old. Back then, my family did not have cable. As a baseball fan, when I wanted to catch a game, I had to tune in on the radio. The way that the announcers painted the picture of the game was amazing. I could picture every play in my head as if I were there. I fell in love with the medium of radio from that time on, so much so that I decided to pursue communication as a career.

While going to school at BYU-Idaho, I worked at BYU-Idaho Radio in several capacities. One such position that uniquely qualifies me for this job was when I served as the station's intern for a semester. As the intern, I wrote articles for the station's website about the school's weekly devotionals as well as interviewed the speakers which included several General Authority Seventies and general officers of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Additionally, I scheduled and conducted daily interviews that aired during the weekday show.

Thank you for your time and consideration. Not only do I believe I have what it takes to excel as a member of your team, I also have intangible attributes to contribute to the culture and overall environment of the workplace. I feel that you will come to this conclusion upon viewing my resumé. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me by phone at (530) 360-0385 or by email at chandlermgadagnin@gmail.com. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Chandler Guadagnin
